Mohammed Kinewa is a recent arrival to Britain from North Africa. He has never paid a penny in tax in this country, yet he is now getting £617.72 every week, that's £32,000 a year, out of our pockets.

It's no wonder this man is fleeing Africa. He is a convicted terrorist and was tried in absentia four years ago for killing four soldiers. Not surprisingly, the story of Mohammed Kinewa, his two wives, 15 children and two large houses in Birmingham, have caused national outrage. THE British National Party regularly receives letters from members of the public who seem to retain a misplaced confidence in the willingness of the main parties to address their complaints.

The argument goes something like this. "We agree with the BNP but it is not necessary to support you since the Government will soon see sense in the face of our complaints". Some writers appear to have a touching faith in the galvanising effect of a single letter from them to their MP!

The public, not unnaturally, would like solutions without the inconvenience of major change, and this weakens their resolve to break out of the vicious circle of voting for the existing tribe of politicians.

That is how one arrives at the bizarre situation in which Londoners complain bitterly about illegal immigration while telling pollsters they intend to vote for Ken Liv-ingstone - someone who stands for everything they oppose!

The reality is that reasoning with the main parties and those who are seen, like Livingstone, as in the same camp, is no more likely to succeed than asking Al Capone to become a respectable citizen.

The full intention is to destroy our society and its people, and all one will obtain by appealing to those in power at present is empty words and false promises.

Reality is at last, however, beginning to bear in on an increasing number of people. A germ of doubt about the good intentions of the fast talkers from Lib/Lab/Con is spreading rapidly.

It will not be long before the new and different voice of our party breaks through the barricades of censorship which have stood for forty years silencing our people.

Change is coming whether the pitiful creatures in power like it or not.

After all, the problem started under them in the first place. It's the oldest Conservative trick in the book to make anti-immigration noises while out of office, but then leave the gates wide open once they're in power.

The plain truth is that only one party in Britain is really committed to saying 'No' to any more bogus asylum seekers - the BNP. And that's why more people than ever will be voting British National Party in the forthcoming local elections.

Livingstone once described himself as "proud to be an opportunist". So it's no surprise that he started his London mayoral campaign by posing as a pauper, and begging for donations from ordinary Londoners, while failing to declare to parliament hundreds of thousands of pounds for speaking at fat-cat dinners.

BNP AND RACE

The BNP is best known for its policy on race and immigration. The BNP opposes immigration into the UK from whatever its source.

For forty years this immigration has primarily been coloured. But it is not an issue of colour since the party is equally opposed to immigration from Albania and Eastern Europe.

The BNP is not a 'race supremacist' party. The BNP does not claim that any one race is superior to any other, simply that they are different.

The party merely wishes to preserve those differences which make up the rich tapestry of human kind.

Neither has the BNP any connection with 'race hate'. Indeed it is the multi-racialists who are Muslims find their religion free from Western influence.

All peoples need a homeland. The British too need a homeland.

Nor are the BNP 'racist', Indeed, the BNP are resisting the racist colonisation of Britain in which the native people of Britain are having their culture suppressed, their land colonised and are being discriminated against on racial grounds.

To sum up, the BNP is fighting for the very right to exist of not just the British, but of all peo-

MATTER OF NOT HATE!

The multiracists who are trying to destroy the identity West Indians in particular are now returning home. Labour of Britain often say that anyone who opposes mass immigration and forced multiculturalism is a 'bigot' or a 'hater'. This is nonsense!

The truth is that the real bigots are the people who are so hostile to the British that they've turned us into second class citizens in our own country. And the real race haters are the people who want to mix up and destroy all the separate races and cultures so that international big business can make maximum profits in a single, globalised world market.

Many non-whites, particularly Black separatists and Muslims, completely agree with the British National Party in rejecting enforced multiculturalism. More and more of the immigrants who came here during the 1950s and 1960s are realising that they were tricked into coming here as cheap labour for Tory businessmen and cheap votes for Labour councillors, and that Britain really doesn't suit them - which is why thousands of Home Office spokesman Mike O'Brien recently warned on Radio Five that, if the multiracial experiment failed, "our children, black and white alike, will pay a heavy price."

Being politically active in local communities in many of the most heavily multiracial areas of Britain, the BNP knows that the multiracial experiment has already failed. This is why we want to bring it to an end, and to provide the financial assistance needed to enable the very large numbers of non-whites who want to return to their lands of ethnic origin to do so. Our Homeward Bound offer has led to cooperation between BNP activists and black people who want to leave Britain, and we are always very happy to work with them.

In the multiracist propaganda fantasies of Labour spin-doctors and liberal journalists, the increasingly obvious failure of the multiracial 'experiment' is always the fault of wicked white people. They just can't admit the truth: the majority of the victims of racism in Britain are white. So, to them, Richard Holmes and his terrible injuries just don't count. As far as the national media are concerned, Richard Holmes doesn't exist.

Nor was this a one-off incident. It's a regular fact of life in many ethnically mixed areas - just ask people in northern towns like Burnley, Oldham, Halifax and Leeds, or in huge areas of cities like Birmingham and London. In the Tipton/ Dudley part of the Black Country where young Richard lives and so nearly died at the hands of black racists, two other innocent white youngsters have been beaten into intensive care by gangs of Asian racists in the last eighteen months.

Imagine what would happen if any town in Britain saw the attempted murder of three young immigrants by white youths in less than two years - Tory, Lib-Dem and Labour politicians and media commentators would, quite rightly, be queuing up to condemn such violent racism. But because the victims are 'mere' whites, they all try to pretend it isn't happening or it doesn't

But it is happening, and it does matter. At least, it matters to the British National Party and ordinary people like us. That's why this issue of Freedom has devoted its front page to this story. We're not trying to imply that all black or Asian youths are potential racist thugs - these attacks are clearly the work of an unpleasant minority, and no doubt are rejected by the majority of their communities. It's quite likely that Richard Holmes had black friends in his Cadet Corps who are every bit as decent and law-abiding as himself.

But we do want to point out the disgusting double standards of the other political parties, the national media and the politically correct bosses of Britain's police forces all of whom go to extraordinary lengths to stop the long-suffering British people learning the full extent of the failure of the multiracial

Eureaucrat....Vice

EX-EU official Paul Van Buitenen has made a damning allegation that EU bosses are in the grip of the mafia, and that the Brussels bureaucracy is riddled with "networks where you don't know what is happening."

Paul Van Buitenen blew the whistle on the mass scale of corruption within the EU and forced the entire unelected European Commission to resign only last year. He added he was convinced that the mafia has influence but could not prove it. He has also now warned that EU vice president Neil Kinnock's 'reforms' to beat corruption will fail miserably. Which means, of course, that Britain's EU bill will continue to rise still further from the £40 million a day it is at the present. That translates

THE GREAT QUESTION TIME MYSTERY

Many readers of Freedom will have wondered how it is that audiences on BBC's Question Time seem to be composed almost exclusively of ultra-liberals, whose views are suspiciously unlike those of most of the public. How do the BBC's experts do it?

Freedom is proud to bring you the inside story from someone who has actually appeared on the programme!

"I've been in the QuestionTtime audience and my views are not often described as 'liberal'. How it works is as follows:

1) You apply.

2) you are phoned and asked a few questions to see if you are a muppet. I passed, so the initial vetting can't be that bad. Mind you, they do require you to state your social group (sort of) by asking you your profession. They also ask you what your politics are. I said 'liberal' (but meant, floating voter).

3) Your tickets are posted.

4) You arrive at the studio and are herded into a room where you eat a sandwich, drink coffee and write out two questions. All the time this is happening you are being played BBC news footage of the day's events.

5) You submit your questions and if you are chosen (who has written down the question that the politicians want to answer) you are taken to one side and briefed. 6) You enter the studio and are given a quick prep on when to clap etc. 7) The warm up man enters! And herein lies the problem. He asks

David Bimbleby...Question Time host

a few current questions and everyone gets to see how talkative you are. Behind the scenes the producer or someone is monitoring to see who might ask 'awkward' questions or make trouble. 8) The program starts, the 'Three Stooges' fire off their pre-chosen questions and the politicians trot out their pre-rehearsed answers. Occasionally Dimbleby opens up to the audience for a question (count the number of times - NOT VERY MANY! Also look at the camera angle, the minimum number of surrounding people are shown, thus eliminating heckling opportunities).

I'm guessing that only people that the producer OK's are brought in for comment.

9) The whole thing is taped. After the hour, the audience wait until the producer agrees (in case anything needs re-filming), you leave the studio and are home in time to watch it go out....

That's the magic of television!"

Appeal Election

The Greater London Assembly elections will be held on Thursday May 4th.

Voice of Freedom is pleased to be able to confirm that the British National Party will be standing a candidate for mayor, the party press officer Michael Newland, and a slate of candidates for the proportional representation top-up seats in the Assembly.

This means that Londoners in every part of the capital will have the opportunity to vote both for an individual BNP candidate, and for the party itself.

The party's mayoral candidate will also have his election address distributed to every voter in a booklet being prepared by the Returning Officer which will include the addresses of all the candidates. The booklets are going to be sent out in individually addressed envelopes, which we expect to diminish the chances of massive areas never receiving addresses, as occurred during the European elections last

All this is costing the party £25,000 in deposits alone. However, £5,000 will be returned more than 5%. The BNP will be going all out to boost its votes, with mass distribution of copies of Freedom in our best areas and other publicity initiatives.

Among these will be a fleet of loudspeaker vans, which will allow a relatively small number of activists to build a high profile for the BNP campaign.

On top of this, we will be aiming to use the 'controversial' status of the Party to get publicity in local newspapers for the roving leafleting teams covering areas of particular potential all over London.

With the need to provide find a party that is prepared to administrative backup as well, this means that the total costs will reach about £30,000.

With many BNP branches and groups elsewhere in the country also heavily committed to fighting local government to any party taking 2.5% of the elections in May, we need to raise vote in the party list, and £10,000 the maximum amount in to mayoral candidates winning donations to ensure that after the poll we have adequate funds to move forward on the back of massive exposure for the party.

That means that we need the help of new readers of Freedom. Even if you are reading this in a town or city hundreds of miles from London, you'll understand that a good showing by the British National Party in our capital city will give us a tremendous boost across the whole of the country.

If this is the first time you've read anything from the British National Party, the chances are that you're delighted at last to stand up and say out loud the things you've been thinking for so long.

But just because more and more people like you are in agreement with us isn't going to help us save Britain. Only organised political work will change anything. Our crusade to do just that needs more members, more activists, and more money.

We hope that you're already ready to join the growing number of decent Britons working to build the British National Party, but even if you aren't quite ready to commit yourself to being active, you can choose to do your bit in confidence by sending a donation towards our £10,000 GLA Election Fund.

Please make cheques/POs payable to 'British National Party' and send to PO Box 25352, London NW5 2FE, Please note that donations of less than £10 will only be acknowledged if an SAE is provided. Thankyou.

HELP US TO FIGHT FOR YOUR BRITISH INTERESTS IN LONDON — BECAUSE IT'S STILL OUR CAPITAL CITY!

I enclose £	to help the BNP's good work.

the EU and immigration are all hot issues. Regular leafleting is the key to increased recruitment. These are first class propaganda weapons. Use them to build the British Resistance!

BNP PUBLICATIONS

BNP Activists' Handbook

This handbook is a complete instruction course in all the essential techniques needed in promoting and building the BNP at local level, starting from scratch when the activist is entirely alone. This booklet is a mine of information that all activists, old and new, will find valuable in the quest to make their activities more efficient and effective. It is a 'must' for everyone who wants to be more than just an armchair nationalist. The handbook is illustrated and runs to 71 pages. £2.00 post-free.

BNP Propaganda handbook

Spreading the Word is deals with propaganda and supplements the Activists' Handbook. Illustrated, Spreading the Word is 60 pages and contains five sections:- (1) Principles of Propaganda; (2) Recruitment; (3) Canvassing for Elections; (4) Speaking to the Media; and (5) Public speaking and presentation of Party meetings. Special attention is also given to dealing with enemy smears. £2.00 post-free.

Currently the party's best leaflet. Do you think has been reworked and reprinted in the hundreds of thousands. As a result, this two-sided, two-colour leaflet has come down in price by a full £1 per thousand to just £7/1,000. Postage rates are £5.65/1,000 and £6.45/2,000.

With bogus 'asylum seekers' continuing to be in the news, there is no other party in the UK that will be pressing this particular button with the public in quite the same way as the BNP.

Get your supplies today and as the leaflets go out, watch the enquiries rush in because everyone agrees 'Enough is enough!'

Anti-EU car stickers. These 5"x3½" window and bumper stickers come in three colours (white, yellow and blue) for only £1 plus 20p p&p. State 'window' or 'bumper' and send six 2nd class stamps or chques/POs for £1.20 payable to 'BNP' to: PO Box 44, Bexleyheath, Kent

T-SHIRTS

North West London BNP are proud to be able to bring two great T-shirts which can be worn anywhere. One — 'St. George for England' is clearly designed for just one of Britain's four nations and very good it is too; but the other — 'United We Stand' captures the very essence of British Nationalism and cannot be recommended too highly.

Only available at present in Xtra Large size, the T-shirts are in full colour and cost £8 including p&p.

Make cheques/POs payable to 'North West Trading' and send to PO. Box 128, Pinner, Middlesex HA5 1XT

- Patriot

Glossy, full-colour magazine. Patriot is packed with history, culture, comment and nationalist views. Read all about the BNP leadership battle. Send cheques/P.O.s for £3 to: 'Patriot' PO Box 1032, Ilford, Essex IG1 1DY.

YOU THINK

that Britain should stop taking in, housing, feeding and caring for thousands of 'asylum seekers' at a time when homelessness and hospital waiting lists are steadily rising?

YES/NO

that local councils should start putting native-born British people to the front of the housing queue for a change?

YES/NO

that the Home Secretary is wrong to give an extra 30,000 'asylum seekers' the right to stay in Britain just because the authorities haven't been able to investigate the often bogus claims as to why they should be allowed in?

YES/NO

that we should stop building new houses on green field sites to make room for 150,000 extra immigrants every year?

YES/NO

that the politicians were wrong to allow mass immigration to change the face of our country, without ever even asking if we wanted it?

YES/NO

'Yes' every time? That's what we think too. That's why we're building the British National Party, and why you should join our campaign to put the British people first, before bogus asylum seekers and before new immigrants... before it's too late.

Don't waste your vote on the old gang!

The vast majority of readers of this issue of Freedom will have British National Party candidates to vote for in elections on May 4th.

If this includes you, please make sure that you vote BNP, and encourage everyone you know to do the same. A single vote can make the difference between being elected or not, saving a deposit in London, or beating another major party into third place - and that vote could be yours!

If, on the other hand, you are in an area which has elections but do not have a BNP candidate this time around, don't waste your vote on one of the other parties who have made such a mess of local and national government in Britain. If there's a decent independent candidate consider giving him or her your vote.

In other parts of the country, BNP candidates will be standing in the local council elections taking place on the same day. Areas being contested include parts of Tyne and Wear, Lancashire, Yorkshire, Stoke-on-Trent, the West Midlands and Hertfordshire.

Residents in these areas who receive a copy of Freedom should also look out for our election address. Make sure you exercise your right to vote on May 4th. And make sure you use that vote to support BNP candidates who really care about our own people, and to send Blair & Co a clear message: "Britain's had enough!"

ZIMBABWE is close to anarchy as the ruling black elite has ordered the 'takeover' of 600 white-owned farms by squatters. Now a church-organised march for peace has been attacked by 200 black thugs armed with iron bars and pickaxe handles. Whites were singled out and beaten as the campaign to ethnically cleanse the 'multiracial' country of whites intensifies.

President Mugabe has given his support to the occupation of the 600 farms in an effort to deflect attention from the catastrophic failure of his economic policy, and to pay off cronies who keep him in power.

The farm occupation - by groups saying they represent veterans whose terrorist campaign helped end white rule in 1980 in what was then Rhodesia - began a month ago after the government lost a referendum that would have into the country. allowed it special powers to go on the offensive against the country's whites.

The squatters said they would "fight anyone who tried to evict them." David Hasluck, the Commercial Farmers' Union chief retorted that: "If the parties to this order do not comply, there will be de facto anarchy, and this would be of grave concern to all the citizens of Zimbabwe."

A spokesman for the squatters, Joseph Chinotimba said his members would not leave the farms.

But get out of Zimbabwe they probably will have to. Agrippa Gava, the director of the Liberation War Veterans' Association, whose 50,000 members are spearheading the farm land seizures warned of impending civil war.

"We have a history of fighting for our land," he said. "We have reached a point of no return."

He has also sent a letter to the Queen urging Britain, as the former colonial power, to pay white farmers compensation for losing lands to avert "a bloodbath coming up

He said: "Should the party fail us, we would rather go into a military government to set things straight."

On past experience of these peoples 'military' campaigns, "setting things straight" would mean a brutal and genocidal terrorist campaign against the country's whites.

It now seems certain that should the black extremists and racists not get their way, they will attempt a military coup with the end result of declaring war on the white population.

DOUBLE STANDARDS

Imagine if the same thing were to happen in Europe but against black people.

The United Nations would impose economic sanctions, America would send aircraft carriers to the seas around Europe ready for bombing, and there would be a mass of demonstrations. But as this is happening in Africa and the victims are white, no action is being taken, and the media liberals who usually make such a fuss about 'racism' and ethnic cleansing are strangely silent.

What is happening in Africa to whites is happening in Europe too. White people are being steadily edged into a position where they are to be treated as an inferior race which can be dispossessed. Anyone who objects is accused of 'racism'. The only difference between Africa and Britain is that here it is white politicians who are attacking their own people, and without any of the excuses like colonialism which Mugabe can employ.

Researchers have found that the number of homosexuals living in stable relationships is too low to count. Less than one in 300 hundred of the population lives in anything which might be considered even a steady homosexual relationship - let alone anything approximating a 'marriage'.

The figure contradicts liberal claims that one in ten of the population is homosexual - five million people - and the claim of large numbers of stable homosexual relationships which should be legalised as 'marriages'. Propaganda wildly exaggerating the number of homosexuals has been a weapon used for years by the 'gay lobby' to gain power.

Celebrate St. Georges Day

The time has come for the 'white tribes' of the British Isles to reclaim their identities, and celebrating the saints days of England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland (because St. Patrick wasn't a republican!) and Cornwall is a good place to start.

St. George.

In addition to flying the flag, and encouraging local councils, churches and residents to do the same, BNP members and supporters in a number of areas will be holding dinners, social evenings and extra activities to mark St. George's Day this

National conference approves new party constitution

"Professional, well-organised and tional leadership. successful" - that was the verdict from everyone attending the British National Party's national General Members' Meeting early in March. About 300 activists from every part of the British Isles met in a superb conference venue in Milton Keynes.

The first part of the meeting was taken up by constitutional amendments. These covered three main areas: the BNP's principles; financial accountability, and providing a system of checks and balances to help ensure continued sound na-

The fine-tuning of the principles section makes explicit the party's commitment to protecting and enhancing the democratic process, and to bringing the failed multiracial experiment to an end through negotiation and consent rather than by compulsion. The section of the constitution dealing with party financial arrangements was changed to provide the accountability that is essential to a political movement positioning itself to make capital out of the corruption and sleaze which riddles the old parties. Steps to broaden the party's leadership base without losing the edge provided by the 'leadership principle' will fit the BNP for the rapid growth that everyone in touch with the grass-roots knows is starting to happen.

Following a debate about a proposed amendment, and a counter amendment put from the floor, the revised constitution was adopted by unanimous vote of all those Meeting chairman Frank Forte was on splendid form, entertaining and enthusing everyone present as he introduced the various speakers, including the organisers of all BNP regions contesting the forthcoming elections. They were followed by BNP Deputy Chair, Mrs. Sharron Edwards, who spoke about the way in which sensible, mainstream policies and hard work at local level would bring in not just votes but also more of the women which the party tended to lack in the past. The fact that these changes are starting to make a real impact was indeed reflected by the number of ladies in the hall.

Peterborough-based super-activist Pete Baker was another very popular speaker, reducing everyone present to fits of laughter at several points with his usual mixture of humour and well-phrased observations about life in Blair's madhouse.

Following a minute's silence in memory of Dave Bruce, the founder member of the BNP who used to make such a brilliant job of conducting collections at such meetings in the past, Frank Forte ran a fast-moving Dutch Auction. This raised a magnificent total of more than £4,000 - the second highest figure ever for a BNP collection.

Finally, the party's National Chairman, Mr. Nick Griffin, gave a powerful speech which covered the worst of the ways in which the old parties have let the British people

"Every leaflet you put out, every paper you sell, every person you talk to about the British National Party, is another stick placed on the pile that is soon going to become the bonfire on which fifty years of shame, fifty years of treason, fifty years of failure, and fifty years of misrule will be burnt away."

The standing ovation that followed left no one in any doubt that the activists and officials of the British National Party face the future with a great spirit of unity, confidence and enthusiasm. The overall theme of the meeting said it all: We're moving up a gear!

American BNP Friends meetings success

The American Friends of the BNP (the BNP's American support group) has been going from strength to strength over the last year.

They publish an excellent newsletter — Heritage and Destiny and have a first class internet Web site. Over the last month they held two very successful meetings in different parts of the country.

The first was held on January 29th, in their stronghold of Arlington, Virginia (just outside of Washington DC) which attracted over 60 members and supporters.

Many more would have attended had it not been for the bad weather conditions. They heard speeches from Thomas Chittum — the author of the best seller Civil War Two, Jim Lubinskas — the assistant editor of American Renaissance, Mark Cotterill — Chairman of the American Friends of the BNP and Stephen King collection raised over $600 (almost £400).

The second meeting was held a week later on February 5th, in sunny West Palm Beach, in South Florida.

This was new territory for the BNP, but even so over 50 members and BNP meeting in Florida.

And if you're a Londoner, don't vote for 'cuddly, Red' Ken Livingstone either. Both these former Labour members leave an army of others to promote perversion...

• The Labour party (backed by the Lib-Dems and by many Tories) has lowered the homosexual age of consent to allow adult perverts to have sex with young teenagers.

• The Labour party is about to release even more potentially murderous child-sex cases from prison.

• The Labour party wants to abolish Section 28, which protects our children from prohomosexual indoctrination by left-wing education authorities.

• Many Labour party activists support the campaign by 'gay' extremists to lower the age of consent still further and so legalise paedophilia.

What we stand for

- A massive expansion of Freedom and Democracy to roll back the erosion of our traditional freedoms and truly reflect the wishes of the people; the adoption of popular referenda & hi-tech direct democracy.
- The establishment of a government that puts British interests first.
- An end to immigration and the scandal of bogus asylum-seekers flooding Britain. The use of the billions now wasted in foreign aid to fund generous 'Homeward Bound' schemes to encourage immigrants to return to their lands of origin.
- British withdrawal from the European Union: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties, and no monetary union.
- The use of the £1 million per hour we at present pay the EU to fund the restoration of an effective National Health Service and proactive measures to produce a healthier population in the first place.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources including the mass media.
- Protection of British jobs and industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- The introduction of tax incentives and other policies designed to ensure that the City finances British industry rather than foreign competitors.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum self-sufficiency in food; also the restoration of the fishing industry by protection of our traditional fishing grounds.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people the protection of our countryside; a ban on greenfield-site house building except in cases of genuine local need; an end to field trials of genetically modified crops.
- A crack-down on crime and tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty for child killers and terrorists.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and an end to the 'trendy' teaching methods which have failed our children so badly.
- An alternative defence strategy based on the principle of armed neutrality; no British blood should be shed in conflicts which do not involve vital British interests. The restoration of the County Regiment system and reversal of the defence cuts which have weakened our Armed Forces and cost thousands of jobs.
- The crushing of the IRA and other terrorist groups, the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and the establishment of a devolved, non-sectarian parliament in Northern Ireland.
- A return to healthy moral values and policies aimed at strengthening the family and community. Tough penalties for corruption in public life.
